

The Alumni Association recognizes the outstanding service and accomplishments of its members at the Alumni Awards Gala held at Homecoming every fall. The Distinguished Alumnus Award, the Distinguished Young Alumnus Award, the Samuel Orr Honorary Alumnus Award, and the Edie Bates Volunteer Service Award are presented at that time.

Anyone may nominate eligible alumni and friends at any time throughout the year. Nominations are reviewed by members of the nominating committee of the Alumni Association Board of Directors during the summer and the recipients are selected at the fall meeting of the board. For a complete list of past recipients, visit www.evansville.edu/alumni.

To nominate someone, complete this form and return it to the Office of Alumni and Parent Relations, 1800 Lincoln Avenue, Evansville, Indiana 47722, or fax it to 812-488-2560. Office staff will then contact the nominee to gain his or her acceptance.

Name of Nominator _____ Graduation Year _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip Code _____

Telephone _____ Email _____

Name of Nominee _____ Graduation Year _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip Code _____

Telephone _____ Email _____

In 200 words or less, explain why you feel your nominee deserves this honor. Please list his or her known accomplishments, awards, service, etc.

AWARD

Please indicate the award for which you wish the nominee to be considered.

Distinguished Alumnus Award

This is the highest honor which the association can bestow upon an alumnus or alumna. The award recognizes an individual's achievements in his or her professional field, service to his or her community, and exceptional leadership and service to the University.

Distinguished Young Alumnus Award

This honor is presented to an alumnus or alumna under the age of 40 who has made significant strides in his or her personal and professional development and who has demonstrated service to the University and his or her community.

Edie Bates Volunteer Service Award

This award recognizes an alumnus or alumna for his or her exemplary volunteer service to his or her community and the University.

Samuel Orr Honorary Alumnus Award

This award recognizes a non-alumnus or non-alumna for his or her personal and professional accomplishments and service to the University. It is the highest honor the association can bestow upon a non-alumnus.

Nominator's Signature _____ Date _____