

John Swampy

Home 1007 Muskrat Dr. • Snapping Turtle, IN 00004 • (812) 888-0000

Campus UE Box 22222 • Evansville, IN 47722 • (812) 488-0000 • js000@evansville.edu

OBJECTIVE	A full-time professional position in waste water management or consulting
SPECIAL SKILLS	Proven abilities in field research, laboratory equipment and techniques • Extensive experience in working with and leading groups • Possess exceptional listening skills • Organized and dedicated leader • Self-confident • Passion for science • Enjoy solving problems • Energetic and responsible • Good public speaker
EDUCATION	B.S. Environmental Science Minor: Theological Studies UNIVERSITY OF EVANSVILLE Evansville, IN	Expected December 2005	G.P.A. 3.15
Courses	Ecology Chemistry I & II Environmental Science Environmental Engineering	Biology I & II Quantitative Analysis Science of Environmental Pollutants Environmental Law and the Regulatory Process
Computer/ Laboratory Skills	•Word •PowerPoint •Field Sampling •Experiment Design	•Excel •Windows •IR/MNR •Microscopes	•Access (limited) •Explorer •Culturing •Dissection •Distillation •Chromatography •Titrations •Hydrology
Senior Project	• As a part of team, researched, tested and presented a comprehensive study of ground water flow in the Ocmulgee Flood Plain; examined variables of directional flow, pollutants, and the ground water source
Projects	• Designed and implemented an ecological laboratory procedure, which included locating a research plot, developing test variables, selecting subjects, and presenting findings • Cooperatively developed and conducted an experiment for a biological laboratory procedure and constructed a formal research article explaining our results
LEADERSHIP	Students for Environmental Action President		2004-2005
	• Reorganized and facilitated the re-development of the only campus organization dedicated to environmental issues and awareness • Coordinated and developed the implementation of a successful student run recycling program
	Orientation Leader		2002-2005
	• Mentored and supported freshmen in their transition to college during Orientation and throughout their first semester • Created and implemented activities for a one hour course to help freshmen deal with topics such as time management, study skills, etc.
WORK EXPERIENCE	O'CHARLEY'S Snapping Turtle Falls, IN Server/Closer	Summers/Breaks 2001-Present
	• Recognized for superior service, twice named as employee of the month, and promoted to night closer
ACTIVITIES	Varsity Basketball team 2001-2005 Varsity Basketball team manager 2003-2004 CrescentStaff Writer 2003-2004	Orientation Leader 2002-2004 Special Events Team 2002-2003 LOGOS Helper 2002-2004	