

ChangeLab Courses - Fall 2020

Project Name	Coach	Course # / Cross list	Day/Time	Credit Hours	Room	Description
Embrace Student Marketing Agency	Mr. Joe Ellsworth	CHNG 300-01 or COMM 390-01	MWF 10:00 - 10:50 am	0-3	SB 250	Deliver marketing and communications services as part of this newly established full-service student run marketing agency. Interviews required. Class is open to selected students only.
Data Analysis in Real World	Dr. Darrin Weber	CHNG 300-Y02 or STAT 300-Y01	MWF 11:00 - 11:50	3	KC 304	This course is designed to provide students an opportunity to apply data analytics in a real world context. Students will learn to conduct a complete data analytics project, including understanding the context; collecting, organizing, visualizing, and analyzing the data; and communicating the findings to the client. Analysis will be supported using statistical software, including R. Because its overarching goals align closely with the university's ChangeLab program, this course may be offered as a ChangeLab course. Because the topics (and thus the necessary statistical tools) will vary with each offering, this course may be repeated. Prerequisite: STAT-266. Hybrid
Human Trafficking	Ms. Jenny Koch	CHNG 310-01	W 3:00 - 3:50 pm	0-1	Online with in person TBD	Students will work with local organizations to define, recognize, and raise awareness of human trafficking in Southwestern Indiana and the US. Could literally save lives. Will be approached from a Christian viewpoint.
Tiny Homes	John East	CHNG 310-02	W 6-9pm	0-3	HH 17/ Online	Continue working on a plan to utilize the Tiny Homes movement to help alleviate homelessness issues in our community. Work with non-profit partners and city leaders to learn about zoning issues and incorporate best practices from other cities.
Neuroscience for Habitat	Dr. Lora Becker	CHNG 310-S01 or NEUR 479-S01	TTH 1:15 - 2:30 pm	2-3	Online	Involves participation in the planning, designing, running, analyzing and presenting of a research project under the direct supervision of a faculty member. A written and oral report of the literature search and laboratory work is required. The project must be approved by the proper Ethics Committee (IRB for human studies, IACUC for animal studies) to receive credit. Content changes each time the course is offered. Course may be repeated up to 6 credit hours. Prerequisite: NEUR 125 or Instructor's permission. CHNG 310-03 limited to 5 students.
Transformative Action	Mrs. Erin Lewis	CHNG 310-04	W 4:00 - 4:50 pm	0-3	Online with in person TBD	Help students identify their passions, deeply reflect on their purpose in life, learn about changemaking, and begin acting on improving the community by working on certain projects. Class is limited to Office of Diversity Fellows. Freshman are required to take the class for 3 hours.
Community Race Project	Dr. Valerie Stein	CHNG 310-Y01 or RES 492-Y01	TTH 4:15 - 5:30 pm	0-3	Online for now	Students will research the African American intellectual tradition in order to develop education resources for the campus and community that contextualize the racial environment in the US. Hybrid
Medical Spanish	Ms. Cindy Crowe	CHNG 310-S02 or SPAN 325-S01	MWF 2:00- 2:50 pm	0	Online	This course is designed to offer students an opportunity to apply the medical Spanish that they learn in an authentic framework while assessing how best to provide interpretation and translation for the community. Course is limited to 300/400-level Spanish students or heritage speakers who would like to take part in the class and the ChangeLab for 0 credit hours

ChangeLab Courses - Fall 2020

Project Name	Coach	Course # / Cross list	Day/Time	Credit Hours	Room	Description
Investigating COVID-19	Dr. Tamara Wandel	CHNG 310-08	Varies as needed	3	Varies as needed	Under the direct supervision of Dr. Tamara Wandel, and in collaboration with WNIN, students will interview subjects and interpret data regarding COVID-19 responses and future preparation. WNIN will utilize findings to help produce on-air content. Students will develop their research, editing, and analytical skills. Class is online with additional in-person meetings regularly scheduled between the student and faculty coach.
Habitat for Humanity	Dr. Holly Carter	CHNG 310-09	W 5:30 - 6:30 pm	1	Online	Course Description: Help Habitat for Humanity Evansville bounce back to building, barn blitzing, and serving the UE community. As all services were disrupted during the pandemic, Habitat Evansville also slowed its operation and has been looking forward to restarting and reaching their annual goals. This course will help the UE community devise a strategy to help support these goals and our Barn Blitz Project. Come and help us build strength, stability, and self-reliance through shelter in the Evansville community.
Trinity Storm Water Park	Mike Labitzke	CHNG 310-10	W 3:00 - 3:50 pm	1	LI 461 or online	Advance the Trinity Storm Water Project to be located in downtown Evansville. The focus of the FA 2020 semester will be on fundraising to help support the water project implementation.
Community Health and Social Justice	Su Jin Jeong	CHNG 310-D01 or PH 360-D01	Asynchronous	3	Online	Provides an overview of the major health issues influencing quality of human life. Topics include individual and social planning for optimal health. Prerequisite: PH-190 or permission of instructor.
Rogue & Peasant Aces (late start)	Westom Grant & Amelia McClain	CHNG 310-8Y1	MWF 6-9 pm	2-3	Tent outside Hyde Hall	University of Evansville Department of Theatre is expanding the award-winning Shakespeare initiative, Rogue & Peasant Aces, by creating virtual productions of Shakespeare's The Winter's Tale and Much Ado About Nothing. This project revives a tradition that began in 1962, with a University of Evansville production of A Comedy of Errors that toured to high schools, building on the mission to make Shakespeare free and accessible throughout the Tri-State area. Hybrid
Ace3 Outreach & Marketing (late start)	Emily Schuster	CHNG 310-8Y2	M 4:00 - 6:45 pm	3	SB 172	Students on this project will work in conjunction with the finance students managing the ACE3 portfolio. Team members will identify women and minority owned businesses in our region and create an outreach program to let them know about the ACE3 opportunity. Hybrid