UNIVERSITY OF EVANSVILLE SCHOLARSHIP POLICY FOR JOHN C. MOORE SCHOLARS PROGRAM

UNIVERSITY OF EVANSVILLE GIFT-AID POLICY: The University of Evansville awards John C. Moore Scholars the value of full-time tuition (12-18 credit hours) during fall and spring semesters. Prior to being named a John C. Moore Scholar, students are awarded University of Evansville merit-based scholarships and/or need-based grants. Once notified of status, a revision to aid will occur, as the John C. Moore Scholarship replaces all previously offered University funding. The total of all institutional scholarships/awards will not exceed the value of full-time tuition in the fall/spring terms. This scholarship is not awarded in Winter or Summer terms.

PRIVATE SCHOLARSHIPS: Students who earn private scholarships may retain the scholarship funds up to Maximum Gift-Aid in accordance with the UE Maximum Gift-Aid Policy. If maximum gift-aid is exceeded, UE funds will be reduced by the excess.

AID FROM THE FAFSA: Students who have filed the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) may also see revisions to their financial aid package. State of Indiana grants are coordinated with institutional gift-aid first to cover the value of tuition and mandatory fees (student activity and services). Federal grants may be applied toward housing and meal plan charges.

HARLAXTON AND APPROVED STUDY ABROAD PROGRAMS (FALL AND SPRING TERMS): The John C. Moore Scholarship is available for study at Harlaxton College or one of the University of Evansville's other approved study abroad programs during the fall or spring semesters. The Moore Scholarship will cover the standard tuition and fees portion of the study abroad experience. To support travel, students who attend Harlaxton are awarded a one-time $1,500 UE Harlaxton Travel Grant.

For other approved study-abroad programs, gift assistance must be determined on an individual basis.

DURATION AND SCHOLARSHIP RENEWAL: The John C. Moore Scholarship funding is available for only eight semesters. Scholarship renewal requires that students maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress, which is reviewed at the end of each semester by the Office of Student Financial Services.
