ART HISTORY INTERNSHIP AWARD

The Department of Archaeology and Art History is pleased to announce the 2017 Art History Internship Award for an art history major or minor who has been accepted into a summer internship program. The winner will receive $500.

The student does not need to be enrolled for credit and must be a freshman, sophomore or junior at the time of application. The Award will be made on the basis of financial need and academic achievement. The Award recipient must send a thank-you letter describing his or her summer experience to Ms. Alexandra Leich by September 1, 2017 and must present on summer internship activities on the UE campus in Fall 2017.

Interested applicants should submit the completed application form (available in OH 350 or online at http://www.evansville.edu/majors/archaeology/) along with:

- A 500-word essay explaining why you want to participate in this program, how the experience will contribute to your course of study and eventual career after graduation, and your financial need; and
- A brief budget showing your estimated expenses for attending the field school, how you will spend the $500 fellowship award, and your sources for the balance (e.g. $x saved from working, $y from parents, etc.).

The deadline for applications is April 26, 2017. The recipient will be announced by May 1, 2017.

Please submit entries to Cheryl Shafer, Administrative Assistant for the Department of Archaeology and Art History, in Olmsted 350
