

This summer on Thursday's...

Join the Office of Diversity Initiatives to

Re-Think Diversity Through Mindshifting Dialogue

12:00 pm-1:00 pm

Schroeder School of Business, Alice G. May Trust, Room 272

June 2, 2016	Diversity: A Double-Edged Sword. A conversation about why diversity is a reality and should be a priority.
June 9, 2016	Exploring Ism's that No One Really Talks About.
June 16, 2016	"Just Ask Me?" What we know and don't know about gender and sexual orientation.
June 23, 2016	"Cat Calls, Compliments, and Come On's." A Conversation about sexist micro-aggressions
June 30, 2016	Responses to Racial Incidents on Campuses Across America. Case Study Reviews
July 14, 2016	What does that mean and what should I call you? Exploring Trending Terminology
July 21, 2016	Celebrating Differences When Everybody is _____except for_____.
July 28, 2016	Tactics For Professionals to Help Make UE More Inclusive.

Each session is 1 hour and will provide interactive sessions that allow participants to think and dialogue about how to re-think everything you ever knew about diversity by providing solution-oriented steps and strategies as well as resources for participants.

Participants must RSVP to lw161@evansville.edu by the Monday at 5 pm the week of the session.

Sessions are intended for any campus member (faculty, staff or administrators). Anyone attending at least 6 sessions will be given a certificate of completion of Diversity and Inclusion at UE at the end of the sessions.

For more information contact: LaNeca Williams at lw161@evansville.edu or by phone at ext. 2413.