

University of Evansville Conferences Apartments

Below is a description of the North Hall Apartments. Conference residents for this facility must be 18 years of age or older. Assignment of North Hall as a conference housing location will be determined based on the needs of the group and the suitability of other conference groups potentially sharing a facility.

All Conference Housing Facilities come with air conditioning, carpeting, and a sprinkler fire suppression system. Amenities include Ethernet, Wi-Fi, and basic cable in bedrooms and living rooms. Laundry facilities are provided at no extra charge.

The University of Evansville campus is tobacco, vape, and smoke free.

North Hall Apartments

Located at 305 S. Weinbach, this apartment complex can house up to 70 conference participants. Opened in the Fall of 2005, these apartments feature up-to-date amenities in a 4-person / private bedroom floor plan.

Each apartment is equipped with a kitchen that includes an eating island, full size refrigerator, sink disposal, dishwasher, and a glass top stove/oven with attached microwave. The living room has a 3 seat upholstered couch, an upholstered armchair, an end table, and a coffee table. Each single occupancy bedroom comes standard with a twin size extra-long bed, dresser, desk/chair, and built in closet. There are also 2 bathrooms and vanity areas in each apartment.

The complex offers a shared laundry, elevator, snack and soft drink vending, and two common lounges. Below is a floorplan for four typical North Hall apartments:

