New Residence Hall

University of Evansville

New Residence Hall is located on Walnut Street between Ridgway University Center and Moore ResidenceHall and across from the Fitness Center. New Hall features 293 beds and has a mix of four and six-bedroom pod options.

Open to UE freshman and sophomores, New Hall offers a significant upgrade in student housing. The pod concept meets the preferences of current and future generations of students who desire both a greater degree of privacy along with enhanced spaces to gather and socialize.

Each bedroom comes standard with a twin extra-long bed that is loft-able. These are done upon request through a professional vendor.

Other bedroom furniture includes a set of lockable under-bed drawers, a task desk and chair, and a built-in closet.
